

1. Chocolate Turtle Candies

- Pretzels
- Milk chocolate covered caramels like Rollos
- Pecan Halves

Place one Rollo on each pretzel and microwave a dozen at a time on a cookie sheet for 30 seconds. Gently press pecan halves on top and let them cool in the fridge. Wrap individually or place in a box.

2. Edible Ornaments

- Sugar cookie dough
- Wooden peg or a large straw to make a hole

Roll out the dough and use cookie cutters to shape it. Make a hole in the upper part of the cookie with a large straw and bake according to recipe. When cookies are decorated and cooled down, pass string or thin ribbon through. Wrap in individual clear plastic bags and hang on the tree.

3. Monogrammed cookie

- Sugar cookie dough
- Light corn syrup
- Assorted sprinkles and colorful sugars
- Paper plates

Bake cookies according to recipes.

Write initials on the paper plates with a pen and then use X-acto knife to cut them out. Place the stencil over the sugar cookie and brush corn syrup over the stencil. Remove the stencil, sprinkle the sugar over the cookie and gently shake off the remaining sugar. It will only stick on to the parts that were exposed in the stencil, revealing the initials.

4. Chocolate covered fortune cookie

- Store bought fortune cookies
- Chocolate chips of your choice

Melt chocolate in the microwave for 30 seconds and stir. Repeat until chocolate is melted. Dip the fortune cookies in the chocolate and then slide it a few inches on the cookie sheet, so there is no chocolate puddle around it. Let them cool, then wrap in clear plastic bags and tie with bows.

5. Cheesecake lollipop

- Cheesecake batter
- Small muffin pan

- Chocolate chips of your choice
- Sprinkles and nuts
- Lollipop sticks

Prepare cheesecake batter according to your favorite recipe. Spray a small muffin pan with cooking spray and pour the batter in. Bake for 20 minutes at 300 degree temperature. Let cool in the fridge and then place the lollipop sticks in the middle. Place in the freezer until they lollipops are frozen and you are ready to decorate.

Melt chocolate in the microwave for 30 seconds and stir. Repeat until chocolate is melted.

Take frozen cheesecake lollipops, dip in chocolate and then roll in the sprinkles or nuts. Refrigerate until ready to serve.
