Delivery of Excellence

Windows is a leading authority in luxury wedding production, with more than 40 years of experience delivering refined, impeccably executed celebrations across the Washington, DC region.

Innovation, creativity, and operational excellence are what make Windows stand out, along with a food philosophy that champions flavor, seasonality and sustainability.

Couples and planners across the Nation's Capital trust Windows to design and deliver spectacular weddings that are both creatively distinctive and operationally flawless.

A Complete Event Experience

Our event designers are experts at planning, managing and delivering every aspect of the event, giving you the reassurance of having one point of contact.

Our event management services include venue finding, tenting, flowers, entertainment, event design & styling and lighting & production.

Flavor, Seasonality, Artistry

Windows believes that the best food comes from placing the finest, responsibly sourced ingredients in the hands of highly skilled chefs.

Our menus flow with the seasons, championing produce sourced from the fields, woodlands and waters of the US.

We have built a network of food producers and suppliers that are truly best in class whilst sharing our sustainability values.

Plant-based dishes feature across all our menus and our in-house menu design team crafts bespoke menus, ensuring that the food for every wedding is totally in tune with the wider creative vision.

The Art of the Pour

Our dedicated beverage design team and bartenders create and craft a superb list of champagnes, wines, cocktails and soft drinks that reflect our values for quality and excellence.

We are always happy to suggest wines and soft drinks that pair perfectly with the chosen menu for your wedding.

Style & Creativity

Windows' creative and research teams collaborate to design the details that bring our weddings to life.

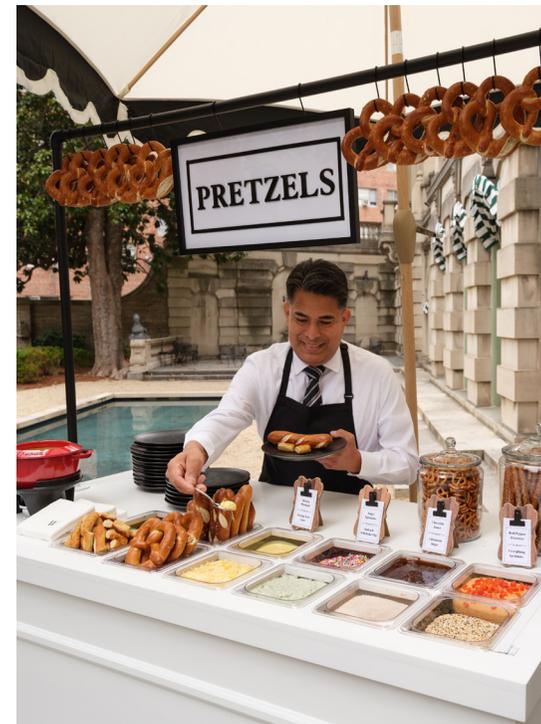

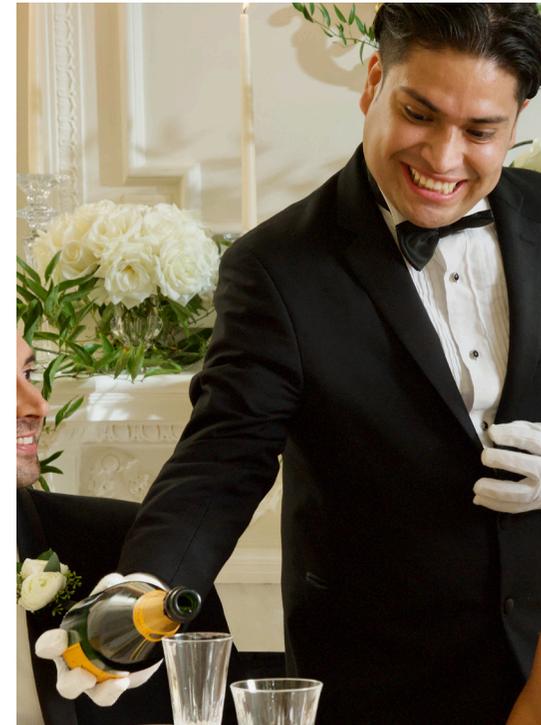

Whether event theming, bespoke menus, food bar styling or stunning hors d'oeuvre trays, we bring something special to each event to make it unique.

The Art of Service

Windows' Event Staffing department manages our own team of waiting staff, recruited and trained in-house.

As the face of our weddings, all our waiting staff are selected for their ability to embody our values and deliver every event to our exacting standards.

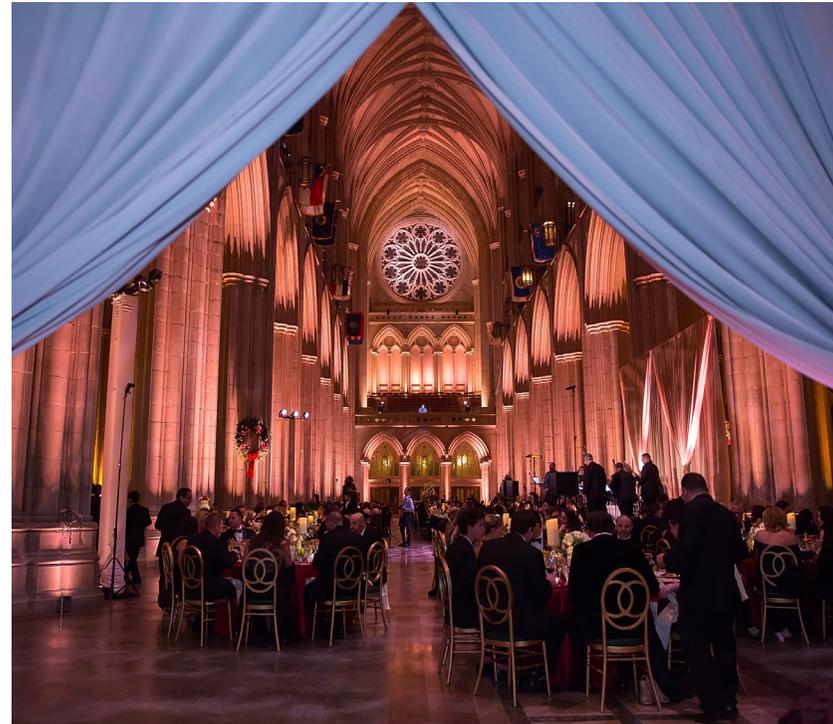

In addition to our service team, we provide butlers, event hosts, security personnel and model staff.

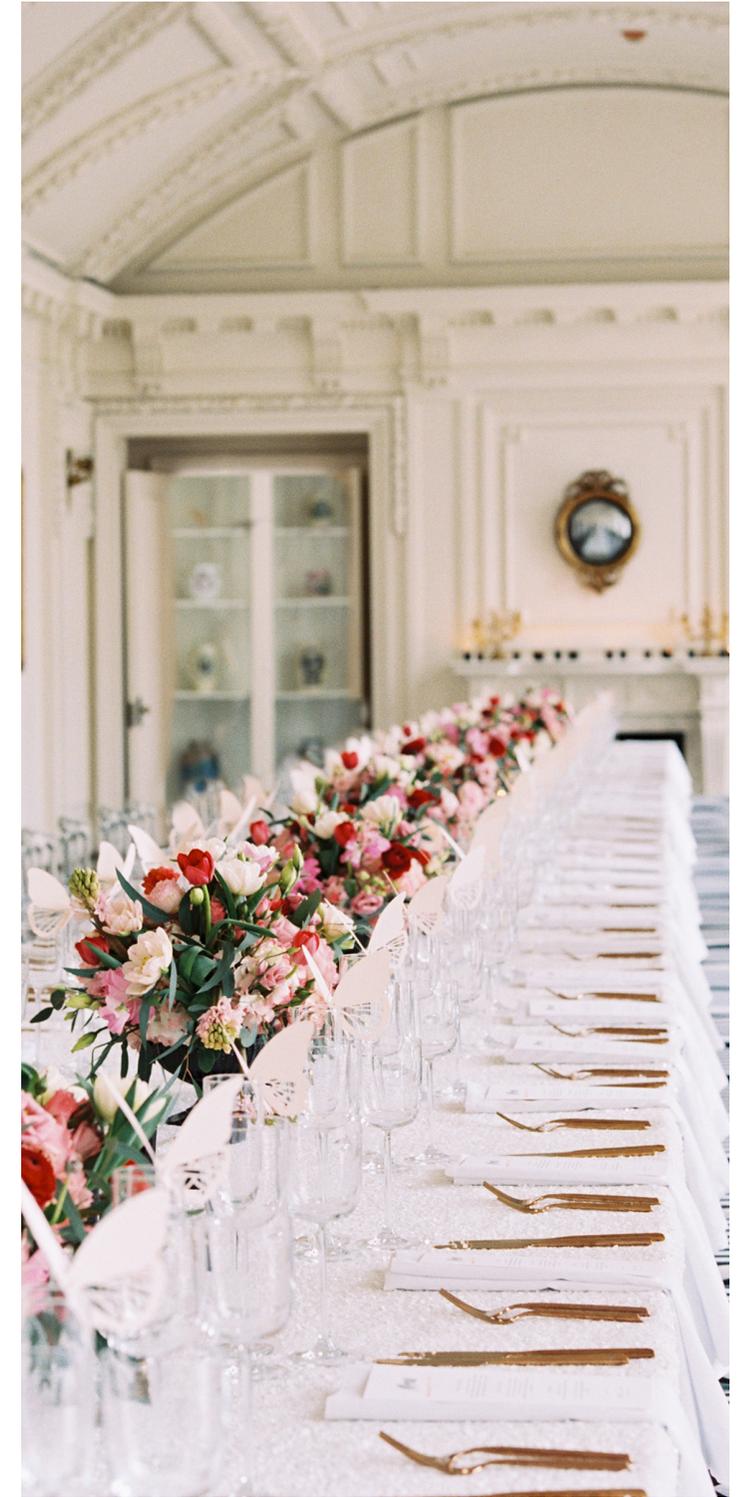

A Wealth of Venues

Windows maintains longstanding partnerships with many of the region's most sought-after venues and is frequently engaged as a preferred or approved caterer across Washington, DC and the surrounding region.

We offer a venue finding service that combines breadth of choice with unrivaled knowledge, helping you choose the perfect backdrop to your wedding.

Say I do...

We invite both of you to visit
for an initial consultation to meet our staff and chefs, and taste our culinary creations.
